I'm a technical PM with 12+ years across AI, identity, and platforms. I've shipped AI, platform, and identity products end-to-end across multiple regulated and consumer companies.

CoreWeave is building The 'essential cloud for AI': GPU clusters, AI training/inference infra, data-center and managed... — and my shipped work maps to it.

See experience.ts (LBR/Obsess/Manatt/Arkadium) for adjacent work.

I subscription/packag and user-growth wins plus AI fluency to position as a GTM PM who understands both product and adoption:

Set access-control policy across the research platform during its transition from on-prem.

I've shipped the work this role calls for — including:

Built High Era single-handed: a full go-to-market automation OS on Google Cloud.
